

Dear CPRF friends,

As we gather to celebrate the holiday season, we are filled with appreciation for your continued support of our mission. Your generous contributions have helped us uplift and empower our veterans and we are eternally grateful.

I want to extend my warmest wishes to you and your loved ones. May your hearts be filled with love and the joy of the season. Thank you for being a part of the WFW Family

